New Joint Venture Depot in Vietnam

Mr. Son Tran, General Manager, OOCL Logistics (Vietnam); Mr. Zhang Jing, Managing Director, COSCO Vietnam; Ms. Rhine Chen, General Manager, OOCL Logistics; Mr. Le, Vice Director, Saigon Newport; Mr. Tran, Director, Newportrans; Mr. Vu, Director, TAN CANG – OOCL LOGISTICS COMPANY LIMITED

At OOCL Logistics, we are always looking to expand our service scope to satisfy the demand of our global customers. We have collaborated with Saigon Newport Corporation to open the company: TAN CANG – OOCL LOGISTICS COMPANY LIMITED to run our first Vietnam depot.

In addition to the numerous offices and the extensive network of OOCL Logistics warehouses in Vietnam, the new depot provides an opportunity to diversify our services as well as create innovative supply chain solutions. This facility is the first step as we continue to expand our footprint and supply chain services in Vietnam. Staffing will consist of experienced logistics experts dedicated to applying sustainable, highest quality results to any challenge.

The facility size is 11,000 square meters and is located at the Cat Lai Industrial Zone of Ho Chi Minh City, next to the Cat Lai terminals. This location is convenient to vessel loading/unloading and can provide lower cost benefits. The new depot commenced operation on September 20th and offers services such as:

- Empty container storage
- Container chassis stacking /unstacking
- Container inspection (Comply with 7-point C-TPAT inspection)
- Container Maintenance, Cleaning and Repairs

We are very confident in the strategic partner we've chosen. Saigon Newport is renowned for its extensive experience in depot operation and has won many awards over the years by providing a superior level of service. Their customer base includes recognizable brands such as Samsung, LG, Panasonic and IKEA. The joint venture is a 50/50 partnership, both OOCL Logistics and Saigon Newport will share their experience and expertise to the benefit of the customer.

An official Grand Opening ceremony for our depot will be held on November 2nd. At the same time, Saigon Newport will be celebrating their 10th anniversary!

OOCL Logistics Supporting United Nations Global Compact

OOCL Logistics recognizes our social responsibility to operate our business in a responsible manner. That's why we are proud to share with you that we are the first Hong Kong-based enterprise, in the international transportation and logistics industry, to be committed to the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) as a signatory.

The United Nations Global Compact is the largest corporate sustainability initiative in the world, with more than 9,500 participating companies in over 160 countries. Signatories, like OOCL Logistics, are dedicated to the Ten Principles of the UNGC.

These Principles are derived from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Labour Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development, and the United Nations Convention Against Corruption. We aspire to integrate these essential practices as fundamental parts of our core business values.

Being a world-class industrial leader, OOCL Logistics is aware of the lasting impact that our operations leave on the world. Because of this, we attempt to influence the industry by always striking a balance between economic, social and environmental dimensions while providing service excellence to our customers.

Over the years, OOCL Logistics has proactively endeavored to build a comprehensive Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) profile. Supporting the UN Global Compact initiative is another excellent opportunity for us to align our corporate sustainability strategy with the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

Moving forward, OOCL Logistics will spare no effort to further our positive influence on the communities we touch and society as a whole.

MARKET TALK

The General Administration of Customs in the PRC has implemented a Nationwide Customs Clearance Integration program, which unifies the enforcement in China Customs declarations such as classification and valuation.

We trust that with this Customs reform, and OOCL Logistics' efforts, cargo clearance speed will be increased, and related logistic costs will be reduced through simplified administrative procedures.
